

Let Us Go To God's Dwelling Place (Psalm 132)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 110$

Am F G C

1. Re - mem - ber Da - vid, the hard - ships he en - dured, yet this
 2. Re - mem - ber Da - vid, the oath Je - ho - vah swore: "For your
 3. "Yes, I will bless them. My boun - ty will be theirs. All their

F G Am F Dm

oath did he give to the Lord: "I shall not slum - ber, nor faith, do I give you a throne. Thy horn shall pros - per; my needs, I at - tend and ful - fill. And my sal - va - tion shall

G C F G Am C

will I ev - er rest, with - out find - ing a home for my Lord." Let us lamp will be on you, and your faith - ful will be as my own."
 be their song of joy: for to be in this home is my will."

G C Dm G C ^{1.2.}G C Dm Em go, to God's dwel - ling place. Let us go, to Your house, O Lord, our

F G C Dm Em F

God! (Re-) make for God a dwel-ling place in our hearts!